

HELP THE PALM BEACH BUY A TICKET TO THE PALACE AUG. 22

The Place For American Youth Is On Top Of American Soil—Not Under European Dirt!

VOLUME 17—NUMBER 22

Recent Operations

By Paul Rardin

The band committee is sponsoring a dance next Thursday night in an effort to raise some cash to take care of current expenses. If you haven't already bought a ticket I suggest that you do so today. Whether or not you dance, spend a $1.00 for a worthy cause.

I know you'll be right proud in days to come when the band struts across Laid fair in snappy uniforms. It has been a struggle to get the band as far along as it is—but, progress is being made and the passing of many months a playing unit will be the result.

Members of the band committee had several setbacks in their efforts to organize a band—but most of the handicaps have been overcome. A competent director has been engaged by the band board as a teacher in the schools and will direct the band also.

Director Lampi has a reputation of turning out good bands. His success at Newport Richey proves that he knows his business. He is diligent and has made splendid progress with the Glades youngsters since his arrival several weeks ago.

Another farming season approaches. It won't be long now until we begin to see the gliding belts in the packing houses. When this familiar tune is heard it means that the Glades is again on its way into another season of activity. Packer's "Muley" workers in the fields "Tink" it is that the long faces of the packers never miss a bet to see something new for citizens of Palm Beach county. I sincerely hope that his efforts this time are successful.

I see by the Palm Beach Post that County Commissioner Chairman A. A. Poston is going to ask the State Association of county commissioners for a special session to consider problems created by curtailment of WPA activities in Florida. Mr. Poston, or Barney as he is known throughout the county, has never missed a bet to do something useful for citizens of Palm Beach county. I sincerely hope that his efforts this time are successful.

MRS. CARUTHERS BETTER Reports from the bedside of Mrs. Raymond Caruthers are to the effect that she is considerably improved today after a very serious illness. She was reported seriously ill on Wednesday morning but her condition improved during the afternoon of that day and she is well on the way to recovery.

Larrimore Freed On Federal Charge

With nearly one hundred of his Pahokee friends sitting in the federal court room in Miami Wednesday ready and willing to testify as to his honesty and integrity, W. D. "Hick" Larrimore, former Pahokee postmaster, won acquittal on a charge of embezzlement of $100.00. J. M. Wilcox, fourth congressman, represented Larrimore at the trial and called less than a dozen of the Pahokee residents as character witnesses.

Several weeks ago "Hick" was replaced as postmaster in Pahokee when books at the office showed the shortage. It was established that Larrimore was not responsible for the shortage as it was established in several months last season when outside help was summoned to carry on the work.

The hundred people who accompanied "Hick" to Miami for the trial did so voluntarily and were more than glad to do so. He has lived in Pahokee for many, many years and has maintained a reputation for honesty among his fellowmen.

Lake Harbor Group Perfects Plans To Assist Community

New Civic Club Lays Out Work For Initial Year

Business men and farmers in Lake Harbor voting precinct are eligible to become members of the Lake Harbor Civic Club, it was pointed out Wednesday night at the second meeting of the newly formed group. An intensive drive will be made during the next few weeks for members in the area. The club is a thoroughly organized and on an operative basis. Present plans call for monthly meetings after the founding work has been completed.

Paul Rardin, Canal Point publisher, was the speaker of the evening Wednesday and pointed out the possibilities and accomplishments which can be realized by the organization. He said that great things which can be accomplished through co-operation of civic bodies here on the shores of Lake Okechobee.

Director Lampi has a reputation of turning out good bands. His success at Newport Richey proves that he knows his business. He is diligent and has made splendid progress with the Glades youngsters since his arrival several weeks ago.

It was pointed out by officers of the group that the club is to be non-political. The motto as suggested Wednesday is to be "The Most Good for the Most People." Tentative plans call for a social gathering of the group at least once a month.

John Gledhill was also a visitor at the meeting and was called upon for a short talk. Mr. Gledhill offered valuable suggestions to the club and spoke words of encouragement in an authoritative manner, since he has had many years of experience in civic and chamber of commerce work.

Voters Will Voice Their Opinions On Six Amendments

Important That Citizens Familiarize Themselves With Ballot

Six important amendments to the state constitution are to be considered by the voters at the general election in November. Little thought has been given to the proposed amendments by voters in the Lake Okechobee Region and it is the purpose of this article to present in terse form just what passage of the amendments would accomplish.

1. Abolish ad valorem taxation for State purposes.
2. Authorize the Legislature to increase the state income tax among the counties on an equal basis.
3. Make permanent the present system of distributing the state income tax among the counties on an equal basis.
4. Increase the number of justices of the Florida Supreme Court from six to seven.
5. Extend the terms of county commissioners from two to four years.
6. Grant a $500 tax exemption to all bona fide residents of Florida who lost a limb or have been disabled by war or misfortune.
7. D. L. Hooks, Canal Point grocer, with his wife and family are leaving this week for a vacation which will take them to the west coast and also to Washington, D. C.

ARRANGE BUDGET

Belle Glade city councilmen have arranged their budget for the ensuing year. The annual budget amounts to $34,710 and was placed on first reading at the regular meeting Wednesday night. Other business attended to at the meeting included appointment of officials for the annual city election scheduled for September 10, G. I. Evans was named clerk. Inspectors will be: M. A. Murphy, Mary M. Bass and W. P. Risk.

Sponsor Dance To Raise Band Funds

In an effort to raise some ready cash for the Pahokee school band, the band committee is sponsoring a dance to be held in the Legion hall on the night of August 22nd. Members of the committee plan to sell tickets in advance and those interested in the band are urged to buy one or more.

The Florida Cavaliers have been engaged to furnish the music for the evening's entertainment. The Cavaliers have a splendid reputation as a dance band and those who attend are assured of good music.

The band under the leadership of Director Lampi is making good progress and more instruments are needed. Music racks are also needed for the youngsters and the committee is thankful that a large ticket sale to the coming dance will be experienced.

It is hoped by Director Lampi and members of the band committee that a playing unit can be perfected by the time the foot ball season starts. Plans are also under way to provide the youngsters with snappy uniforms.

Song Festival Is Scheduled For All Azucar Employees

Program Will Get Under Way At 10 O'clock Saturday Morning

Tomorrow will be a gala day at the Azucar plantation of the United States Sugar Corporation when a mid-season song festival will be held for all the employees. The program is scheduled to get under way at ten o'clock in the morning and continue until six o'clock in the afternoon. Many residents of Canal Point and other towns in the Glades have been invited to attend the affair.

All employees are invited to participate in the various contests where medals and cash prizes will be awarded the winners. There is no admission charge and refreshments will be served at the noon hour.

During the song festival, which runs from two to four o'clock in the afternoon arrangements have been made for the station WWSN in West Palm Beach to broadcast a half-hour portion of the program from 3:30 until 4:00.

The first contest in the program will be chorus singing by children from all plantation villages in both Eastern and Western Divisions which will last from 10:00 until 11:00 a. m. Following this and lasting until 12:30 will be a quartet contest with entries from all plantations after which there will be a recreation and refreshment period until two o'clock. At two o'clock begins the song festival with the following tentative program announced: "Great Day," "Shine, Give God the Glory," "Awards of Prizes," "Selection of Winning Plantation," "Someone Touched Me" by Mrs. of plantations. Disbanded by Winning Quartet. "Study of Moral group," "Selection War No More," "Go Down Moses." Following the program there will be a baseball game between the Eastern and Western Division AHSAs on the Azucar diamond.

Plans Complete To Open Bible School On Monday Aug. 19

Committees Are Named; Ready For Opening Session Monday

Plans have been completed for the Community Vacation Bible school to be held in Canal Point starting next Monday morning, August 19. Sessions will be held in the Baptist and Methodist churches and overflow attendance will be taken care of in the building formerly occupied by the Coburn hardware store, according to an announcement being given by Mrs. M. F. George, general superintendent.

A truck will be in operation each morning to bring children from their homes up the ridge. They will be transported back some immediately following dismissal of morning sessions. It was said.

Officials of the school are hopeful that this year's attendance will go above that of last year which was a most successful school was held. All committees have been appointed and today those interested in the school are urged to be in attendance for a registration period. The committees to handle the school are:

Mrs. M. F. George, General Supt.; Miss Maida Harrington, Hartha Stokes, Pianist; Mrs. E. C. Geizer, Treasurer; Mrs. O. C. Taylor, Pianist; Rev. S. B. Jordan, Musical Director; Mrs. A. S. Scruggs, Director; Miss J. Handwork; Rev. Glenn Boye, Director Boy Handwork; Monroe Pope, James Weeks and Wilson Bordeaux.

Beginners' Department: Mrs. C. E. Jones, Superintendent; Miss Martha Stokes, Pianist; Miss Stude Wilson, Miss Mary Bordeaux, Mrs. Evelyn Donnelly, Miss Myrtice Weeks and Miss Doris Jordan. Primary Department: Mrs. W. P. Jernigan, Superintendent; Mrs. Harold Rosenberg, Pianist; Mrs. Ed Johnson, Mrs. Pete Holton, Mrs. Ed Johnson, Mrs. Ed Johnson, Mrs. Tommy Parker, Miss Junia Howell and Miss Melba Sims. Junior Department: Mrs. T. W. Wilson, Mrs. Glenn Boye, Paul Pope and Mrs. Angele Scars. Intermediate Department: Mrs. S. B. Jordan, Superintendent; Mrs. Bruce Elam, Mrs. Frances Jordan and Mrs. J. H. Bordeaux.

APPRECIATION

U. S. Engineer Department, Clewiston, Florida.

Gentlemen:

The people of Canal Point and community are deeply grateful to your department for building the ramp to the dike in Canal Point. This writer has had opportunity to talk to many people in this section since the ramp was built. Everyone expressed sincere appreciation and I am taking this opportunity to publicly thank your group for co-operation.

I understand that the department plans to build a fence immediately north of the ramp for safety measures. I am wondering if it would be possible to place this fence about a mile north of the ramp in order that our folks might have advantage of the waters of the Lake as a bathing spot. Such location of the proposed fence would also allow ample room for tourists who desire to inspect this vast masterpiece of construction.

If your organization, in its plans, can arrange to place this proposed fence such a distance north of the ramp, I feel sure you will earn the continued gratitude of this entire area.

Thanking you for your past favors and construction of the ramp, I am

Yours very truly,

PAUL RARDIN, Publisher THE EVERGLADES NEWS

Starts Erection Of New Dwelling

Workmen are busy this week putting down the foundation for a new home for Mr. and Mrs. Sam Chastain on Beem Point road in Pahokee. The home will be located on a 400 foot lot which is being beautified by Mr. Chastain. Plans of the new home call for erection of a colonial dwelling with nine rooms.

Disaster Relief Is Planned For County Thru Central Unit

Various Groups To Take Part In Well Planned Program

A three-point program embracing plans for disaster relief in event of storm emergencies was practically completed Wednesday for Palm Beach county.

Under the general supervision of administration set up the county has been divided into five areas, West Palm Beach, Lake Worth, Delray Beach, Pahokee and Belle Glade, with units in each to operate under an area chairman. The entire county setup will be under general supervision of Shelby Buford, West Palm Beach, as central chairman, and George W. Carr, chairman of the south Florida Red Cross safety district.

Enlisted in the general program are amateur radio stations, bus companies, ambulances, truck operators, railroads, airplane pilots, veterans' organizations and their auxiliaries, the Red Cross, and these and other organizations will be consolidated into units with specific duties to perform.

County headquarters probably will be established in Howard park in West Palm Beach and it is planned to use American Legion area for registration and committee work. E. H. Wadsworth is chairman of the West Palm Beach unit.

Lake Worth has nearly completed its organization under direction of the Glades general chairman. Land and airplane are included in the Lake Worth area, while Riviera, Lake Park, West Gate and Palm Beach are the West Palm Beach district. In the Glades section the smaller communities will come under jurisdiction of Pahokee and Belle Glade, depending upon proximity to each.

With much former vegetable-producing land abandoned and the lake now in the hands of cane growers and the opening of the hard road to Okechobee for the outlet, it is anticipated that practically all of the land between South Bay on both sides of the New River and the lake will be taken over this season by vegetable farmers.

Federal Seed Act Protects Growers

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Buyers of vegetable seeds now can be sure they are getting what they're getting. The new Federal Seed Act as it applies to vegetable seed shipped from any State to another is administered by the Agricultural Marketing Service. It went into effect August 9 and provides that any seed cartons or packages of vegetable seed must be labeled to tell the buyer what he needs to know when he buys seed. The Federal Seed Act requires that the kind and variety of the seed be shown on each package. Crops produced must be true to name or as represented on the label. The label must show the name and address of the person or organization shipping the seed. Also, if the seed isn't up to the minimum germination required the label must show the percentage germination at the time it was tested, the date of the test, and in plainly printed letters the words "Below Standard."

Starling & Walker Form Company and Build New Plant

Two Glades Pioneers Join For Operations In South Bay

Ground is now being broken for a new packing house at the junction of State Road 25 with Road 26 between Rucker's store and the Baptist Church. A new firm, the South Bay Growers and Distributors, in which N. M. Starling and A. O. Walker will be co-partners, will own and operate the plant. Mr. Walker will serve as secretary and treasurer, and Mr. Starling as manager. M. D. Hardy has the contract for the building.

It will have a floor space of 60,000 and will be equipped with three electrically driven belts and electric conveyor to the loading platform. Other novel conveniences wherein packing the fruit and vegetables are contemplated and will be installed as economy measures. Ap. approximately 60 local people will be employed as graders and packers during the season.

Mr. Walker, now one of the large growers in this section, has been farming in South Bay and other farming sections in Palm Beach county for the last 30 years.

Mr. Starling has had 12 years experience in this region, having built the first modern packing plant in the Glades. Three years ago he sold his interests here to the Pioneer Growers and has been interested in a new farm development on the shores of Lake Istokoga.

With the completion of Road 26, he said, South Bay is the strategic point for the quick and easy farm produce in all directions, by truck to the West Coast, and by rail to the north. Both truck and rail transportation to all points north are available in South Bay.

The new plant will be ready to handle the fall crop on a F. O. B. basis, growers receiving cash for their produce on the platform as soon as sold. The policy of the management will be to seek out the market by working for a wide variety of produce instead of shipping entirely to the big central markets, Mr. Starling said.

Special attention will be given to the handling of oranges, which will be baled from the field in bulk and packed by skilled workmen, according to the management. A ramp will be built to the platform for ease and economy in loading and unloading trucks.

With much former vegetable-producing land abandoned and the lake now in the hands of cane growers and the opening of the hard road to Okechobee for the outlet, it is anticipated that practically all of the land between South Bay on both sides of the New River and the lake will be taken over this season by vegetable farmers.

Brother Of W. H. Reddick Is Killed

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. "Bill" Reddick returned Thursday afternoon from a monthly vacation. Two hours after they had reached their home in Canal Point they received word from Lakeland that Mr. Reddick's brother had been killed in an accident. They left immediately for the Polk county city.

Reports Are Made By Rotary Groups At Thursday Meet

Outline Plans For Coming Year's Work In Pahokee Club

Howard L. Haney was named chairman of a committee to design improvements on the city and submit a diagram for use in the construction of 100 additional lots.

Sugar Company Is Building Village South Side Of Lake

New Layout Being Used In South Shore Village Construction

Construction is well underway on the new plantation village of the United Fruit Sugar Corporation near Bean City which will be known as the South Shore village. This work is being done by U. S. Sugar Corporation employees under the direction of Fred H. Henson.

The construction work on the houses is expected to be completed the middle of September and landscaping work will begin at once. The village will be ready for occupancy by the beginning of the new sugar harvest season.

The layout of the village is somewhat different from any of those now in use in that in front of the village will be a large semi-circular field in which will be located the athletic field and recreation grounds.

This season thirty double houses for employees are being built. Each unit consists of two apartments with a bathroom, kitchen, living room and three bedrooms each. In addition will be two handmaids' rooms, a bath and cold water. The community kitchens, a mess hall, an auditorium for use as a recreation center, a commissary, a home for the foreign assistant foreman and commissary manager and other necessary buildings will be completed by October 1. There will be no single houses as the corporation has found that the double houses work out more satisfactorily.

Access to the village may be gained by leaving the Cross-Street highway at the first curve west of the city and turning left at the intersection of a new bridge is now being built across the canal which connects the village to a road leading to the city. The Cleveland News.

Another hurricane missed this section of Florida—for which we are indeed thankful.

Just a few days more than four months remain in which to do that Christmas shopping.

Teacher lists have been completed and Palm Beach county schools are ready for another successful school year.

Lake Region growers are busy turning their soil in preparation for the early fall crop of tender vegetables.

Lake Harbor has taken on new life. New store buildings. Remodeled business houses. And now—a new civic organization.

Congratulations to those sturdy men of Lake Harbor who have formed a civic club. We predict that the new organization will be a successful one.

Encouragement rolls in on every hand in regard to organization of an Everglades Chamber of Commerce. Would you be interested in such an organization?

Dike construction work nears an end. This section will miss those weekly payrolls. However, another farming season is at hand and will bring huge payrolls weekly to this sector.

We haven't heard a great deal of comment about the proposed new bridge across the West Palm Beach canal in Canal Point. To have or not to have—that is the question. What do you think?

Couch Frank Hobson is back from vacation and ready for another year's work. Hobson doesn't make any rosy promises for a winning team this fall—but, we'll bet the boys win their share of the games.

Are you thinking your bit to help the school band? Director Lampi needs your wholehearted cooperation to build a successful band for the Lake Region. A word of encouragement now and then would be appreciated by the director.

South Bay is to have another packing house, N. N. Starling and A. O. Walker are erecting it and will have it completed in time for the coming season's operations. Congratulations to two Glades pioneers who have faith in this vast farming area.

School grounds throughout the Lake Region are exceptionally attractive for the opening of school. General buildings have been repainted. Lawns have been kept in excellent condition throughout the summer. Interiors of the buildings have been redecorated and await the arrival of pupils on opening day. Another successful term is in the offing.

Fishing contests around the lake this summer seem to have been lagging just a little. There are only a few weeks left for participants to take advantage of the excellent prizes. To date, no BIG fish have been entered in the competition. There's your chance, Mr. Fisherman, to bag a bunch of dandy prizes.

WINNING SUPPORT

(From The Palm Beach Post)

Editor Paul Rardin of the Everglades News reports that the proposal for organizing an All-Everglades Chamber of Commerce is winning much support. A number of leading residents in the area have given it their endorsement, including some at Clewiston and Moore Haven, who want those sections included, he says.

It isn't difficult to understand why the idea should appeal to people who are concerned with the matter of community development. They are fully aware that some of the problems facing the Glades can only be solved by united action.

The labor situation is one of them and another is road building. If the Lake Okeechobee area is, to continue in the farming business a dependable supply of laborers is essential. Because farm labor has always been plentiful is no proof that conditions won't change. It may not always be possible to depend on transient workers.

Distribution of surplus commodities by the Federal government and State Welfare Board has helped tide over the summer period of unemployment in recent years but conditions are serious even now. Chairman A. A. Poston has stated that these people are not the county's responsibility and that it should be assumed by the farmers.

Without attempting to settle the point, it must be admitted that the situation requires a more orderly method of handling than exists at present. Failure to recognize this fact may prove disastrous.

Stabilization of farm labor conditions might well be one of the first jobs undertaken by the proposed organization. It is something that can't be done by individuals or by single localities. The problem is a community one and must be tackled on that basis. Sooner or later a solution must be found if the Glades' agricultural industry is to grow and prosper.

The labor situation, like road improvements, soil conservation, drainage and other matters directly affecting the lake region are of concern to the entire county. So from a selfish standpoint, if for no other reason, community leaders in other sections should throw their influence behind any movement that promises to further Everglades development.

The proposed Everglades Chamber of Commerce looks like such a movement.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

By Russell Kay

Legislators and commercial fishermen put their heads together at Titusville last week in an effort to iron out some of the vexing problems of the industry and at the same time create a spirit of understanding and good will all the way round.

Governor-elect Holland and a representative group of legislators attended and the meeting should prove of untold benefit for the harmonious and did much to remove the barriers of misunderstanding and good will all the way round.

Titusville proved itself a royal host and entertained the visiting groups with a delightful luncheon sponsored by local civic clubs. During the meeting an excursion for a trip to the East Coast, I took the family along and we ran up to Haverhill Canal late in the evening for a session with the salt water trout that perform for both the sport and commercial fishermen in the headwaters of the Indian River.

We were not disappointed, for the funny beauties were there, except to strike at the artificial minnows we cast for them. The wife, wearing a moon castin' rod, caught both the most and the biggest, to have me lookin' like an amateur. But the truth of the matter is I was kept so busy runnin' the kick-off, peddling the bait and taking first off her hook, I didn't have much chance to fish myself.

And still worse wonder why we had to take 'em alone off the hook. You know a lot of folks have the crazy idea that a "vacation" is something you have to travel several thousand miles to take. We saw our cars full of baggage and drive four or five hundred miles a day tryin' to get somewhere in a hurry and waste a lot of time and money chasin' rainbows when we could have a cheap better time with little effort and a lot less expense right here in Florida, just takin' our time and pokin' around in our own backyard.

After a couple hours of real fishin' we drove on up to Daytona Beach, went for a dip in the surf and then after supper took a turn on the boardwalk where there is entertainment of every kind and character from bowling to bingo.

The next morning after a spin on the famous beach and a look around town, we headed north on the Ocean Highway for Marine Land and a visit to Marine Studios. Although I have visited this unique attraction a number of times, it is always new, always different, and I never tire of watching the graceful antics of the porpoise and the busy activity of the amazing variety of marine life inhabiting the gigantic tanks.

I took time out on this trip to pay visit to the archeological exhibits of Vernon Lammie just across the Highway from the Studios where an ancient Indian burial mound is being unearthed. While only a small portion of the great mound has been uncovered, the bones of a number of ancient inhabitants of the region may be seen lying just as they were buried ages ago with roots of palmetto and other growth entwined about the bones. It is an interesting and educational exhibit, well worth seeing.

Journeymen on to St. Augustine, we stopped at the Ancient City's famed Alligator and Ostrich Farm, and if you've never seen it, believe me it is a sight you'll long remember. There are literally acres and acres of gators as well as reptiles and birds to fascinate and entertain you for hours.

We next visited Old Fort Marion with its most, parapets and dungeons, then went over to the Ponce de Leon Hotel and the Ponce de Leon Hotel and the Ponce de Leon Hotel.

Leaving St. Augustine, we drove to Ocala and Silver Springs where I was anxious to take advantage of an invitation I had for a time to take a trip in the "Nemo" diving bell designed by Max Nemo. I want to tell you it is a real experience and one you'll never forget. You descend into a great metal ball, the top is sealed tightly and then you are lowered to a depth of 60 feet to the bottom of the great springs, with the fine depth clearly visible, from glass portholes in your submarine carriage.

Spending the night and all the next day at the Springs, we took in everything including the Glass Bottom Boat trip, the Photo-Sub, the Jungle Cruise, Ross Allen's Reptilearium, the Indian Village, and went for a swim before returning to our cool bungalow at

THESE THINGS HAPPENED IN THE LAKE REGION 15 YEARS AGO AND WERE RECORDED BY THE EVERGLADES NEWS

"Lon" Adams has bought "Jack" Pope's barber-shop. To most persons even to the folks right at hand, this is a small matter, for it does not involve any change in customers' relationship to the barber business in Canal Point, but actually it is an important matter—a real event. It shows that Jack expects Canal Point to be a larger town, where two barber shops or more may flourish where there was only one before, and it means that Lon is going to stay here.

Propose Foster For Hall Of Fame

MAYO, Aug. 15 (FNS)—In a communication received from Senator Claude Pepper by the Free Press, in regard to its campaign to put Stephen Foster in the Hall of Fame, Senator Pepper was enthusiastic.

"I know of no man whom the 'American people' he wrote, 'if they had the choice to make, would prefer to see in the Hall of Fame than Stephen Foster who has written the songs which have touched the hearts of the people of the nation—even the world. We, of the South, particularly, would feel if Stephen Foster were in the Hall of Fame, that he represented the spirit of the South—the deep, beautiful, moving sentiments which the South from time immemorial has contributed to the nation."

Interested Southerners may do their share in electing Foster to the Hall of Fame, by writing to The Curator, Foster Hall Collection, University of Pittsburgh, Pa., for a list of the electors to the Hall of Fame.

They are then urged to write all, or as many as they feel able, and set forth their reasons for wanting Foster in the Hall of Fame.

Atlantic Coast Line "Dieselizes" Florida Passenger Trains

subsidary of General Motors. These units of 2,000 horse power will be used to power two sections of the all-Fullmer "Florida Special" two sections of "The Champion," all-coach streamliner, and "The Viceroy," all-coach companion train of "The Champion." With this new power equipment, it is expected that the last running time between New York and Florida again will be shortened.

Places Largest Order in History Double Streamlined Train Equipment

WILMINGTON, N. C.—An order for 18 Diesel-Electric passenger locomotive units, said to be the largest single order ever placed, was announced today by Mr. C. McD. Davis, Executive Vice President of Atlantic Coast Line Railroad.

At the same time Mr. Davis announced that an order had been placed for 21 lightweight, stainless steel, streamlined coaches, by the Atlantic Coast Line and Pennsylvania Railroad, which will double the capacity of "The Champion," the New York-Florida streamliner, operated by Coast Line in conjunction with Pennsylvania Railroad, Richmond, Fredericksburg, and Potomac Railroad, and Florida East Coast Railroad. "The streamlined coach" equipment, air-conditioned and of latest design, is being built by the Edward G. Budd Manufacturing Company and will be ready for service early in the Florida season.

The new Diesel units will be built by Electro-Motive Corporation.

THOUGHTS ON THE RIFE AND DEATH OF WILL ROGERS

(Note on August 15th, 1935, Will Rogers died in an airplane crash in the black wilderness beyond Point Barrow, Alaska. He was the most beloved American citizen. His tragic death brought unspeakable sorrow not only to millions of Americans but also to countless citizens of other lands. In memory of this great and good man, and in reverent observance of the fifth anniversary of his untimely death, I am offering a little tribute I wrote the Sunday after he was killed on Thursday, August 14th, 1935. It is too long to be used in one column, so I am using part of it this week, and the remainder next week.)

"I am one among the thousands who loved him and I stand with the millions who lament his death. These tender and beautiful words spoken of Henry W. Grady by John Temple Graves on December 22nd, 1889, express my feelings about the tragic death of Will Rogers.

I know full well that the only man who could fittingly eulogize the most universally beloved person in all the world was taken from us last Thursday night when death claimed Will Rogers for its own in the frozen wastes of Alaska. So I shall make no attempt to eulogize the man who he so well deserves. I shall only try to set down some of the thoughts that have filled my mind since the sad news of his tragic death reached us last Friday morning.

Will Rogers has been my hero since I met him for the first time in Ocala, Florida, on a winter night back in 1928. He was delivering one of his humorous lectures there, and several of us fellows from the University of Florida drove down to hear him. After the lecture we hung around the stage door to try to see him up close and shake his hand if he would let us. When he came out there in the cold, waiting to get a look at him, he walked right up and shook hands with us all then invited us to go to a restaurant and have a bowl of soup on him.

While we were putting the soup away he talked to us just as pleasantly and agreeably as if we had been persons of some importance. We asked him to come up to the University the next day and make a talk but he declined the invitation. We later learned that he stopped by the Veterans' Hospital in Lake City on his way north the next day and made one of his cheerful and humorous talks to the crippled soldiers there. Since that night he has been the greatest man in the world to me.

Later, that year at the Democratic Convention in Houston, I saw and heard him again. He attracted more attention there than any of the candidates for President. He walked to and from the convention hall to his hotel. I usually follow a few steps behind him just to look at him and listen to the witty conversation that he carried on with those who were privileged to be in his company. As the convention was about to adjourn and some of the delegates were actually leaving, Will Rogers was called to the rostrum for a farewell speech. Among other witty remarks, he said: "Well, radio fans, the Democratic Convention is now adjourning and the delegates are stumbling out of the convention hall over the empty bottles." That, as you recall, was back in the dreary days of prohibition.

I next saw him in 1932 when he made the oft-quoted crack about Mayor Altop being stopped from talking by a barber filling his face with soap, lather and placing a razor to his throat. When Mayor Altop and Will Rogers finished their shaves the Mayor jerked out a dollar bill and suggested a tip for Rogers' shave. Rogers objected and paid the barber a dollar from his own pocket, remarking that he knew if he permitted the Mayor to pay for his shave he would pass the cost on down to the people in the form of taxation.

On this same occasion a lady from St. Augustine rushed up to him in the hotel lobby and invited Rogers to come to the 400th birthday anniversary of that City, then being celebrated. He told her he would come if she would promise to come to his 400th birthday anniversary celebration.

On this same occasion he posed for some pictures with Mayor Altop and Mr. J. P. Ingole to aid the Community Chest campaign, then in progress. They started us posing with their hats on, but, having noticed that both Altop and Ingole were just about bare of any hair, and being, himself, possessed of a head full of hair, he insisted that the pictures be taken of the three with their hats off.

I believe it is no exaggeration to say that he influenced the thoughts and opinions of more people in this country than any other person who has ever lived. Certainly he was the most quoted man in America. Hardly a week passed that he was not quoted in the debates in both branches of Congress. I believe an examination of the Congressional Record will show that Rogers was quoted or referred to by Senators and Representatives more often than any private citizen of the United States. He was generally credited with influencing the Senate to reject "The World Court."

When anyone got into a conversation about national affairs, Will Rogers' opinion was usually mentioned before the discussion was finished. In fact, his opinions on national questions were about the only opinions that many people were familiar enough with to discuss. His daily column of comment on current news was the very first thing most everybody I know read in the newspaper. And most everybody who read his column remembered it well enough to quote it. I don't believe I have been in a barber shop a dozen times in the last five years without hearing somebody mention what Will Rogers said that morning.

When I think that none of us will ever again read and enjoy that little column of comment that always appeared in the right hand corner at the bottom of the front page of the Times-Union, I feel a sort of sadness that can't be expressed. When I looked at the Times-Union Saturday morning and saw that space bordered in black and in the center the words "In memory of Will Rogers," I felt almost like I was looking at the coffin of a friend.

Bitting Proposes Plan For Assisting Migratory Labor

Appears Before Investigating Committee In Montgomery, Ala.

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 15 (FNS)—Claude B. Bitting, President of the United States Sugar Corporation of Clewiston, appearing before the committee investigating interstate migration of destitute citizens, offered the following suggestions as helpful in solving the problems confronting our agricultural economy and aiding in reducing the misery of migratory, seasonal farm labor.

Bitting stated that his suggestions, while based on careful study and experience, were not offered in the spirit of a cure-all but pointed out that they would fit into and help in broader solutions and need not interfere with any present or future plans for agricultural relief.

Suggestions offered were:

First—Encourage larger operating units. This may be accomplished individually, corporately, or cooperatively, or by all three basic methods working in close harmony in each locality.

Second—These large operating units could cooperate with similar units in other parts of the country whose peak labor periods are coincident. Such method would tend to provide continuity of employment for seasonal labor requirements by defining continuing groups of employees.

Third—These larger units, either individually or cooperatively, could afford to undertake private research, looking toward lengthening current peak labor; requirements; development of subsidiary crops to provide additional employment in slack season; development of new crops, the peak labor demand of which will fit into slack labor demands on existing crops; finding and encouraging rural location of small industrial plants which can absorb some labor during slack agricultural seasons; ways and means of reducing costs so as to increase profits and broaden markets; increasing the effectiveness of agricultural labor to the end that earnings of agricultural workers may be increased without increasing unit costs of production.

Bitting said that Federal and state agencies could be utilized to give realistic assistance to such a program. Continuing, he said: "If encouragement, either tax or otherwise, is to be given to countries to usurp our foreign markets and, at the same time, we are prohibited from supplying our own needs in favor of the produce of foreign prairie or worse, the outlook for our people is dark, dull and dismal, as destitution is bound to increase. A realistic approach to our own problem, for the benefit of our people, means a future for our own country greater and better than anything ever witnessed in the world."

In closing, Bitting called attention to what he termed a most glaring, unjust and unfair accusation made the South. He said: "The years the South has borne the cost of educating her youth, only upon maturity to find them grabbed by the industrial, commercial and financial North and East. This condition has placed an unfair burden upon most Southern states. In addition it has prevented the South's utilizing the genius, ability and capability which she has cradled and fostered. The South has the most abundant supply of two of the three essentials for plant life: rainfall and sunshine. She has an adequacy of the third essential: soil. Every agency but nature has apparently combined to stifle the resources and capabilities of the South. We, in the Everglades have shown that the highest standards of living in agriculture can be maintained in the South. We are sure this same condition can be proved in industry. We are satisfied that once equality with the rest of the nation can be obtained, the South will forge rapidly ahead. Most emphatically the South is not a problem, economically or otherwise, to the nation, unless such problem be in the way and means of continuing her subjection."

When that Chicago judge ruled that a man may slap his wife, the women were more convinced they should fight for equal rights.

NEW STREAMLINED VERSION OF "THE WAY OF ALL FLESH"

This version of "The Way of All Flesh" is the new 1940 edition with an out-standing cast of recognized players and dressed in a new modern garb. The picture was first produced back in 1927 and Knott Jennings won the first Academy award for his great acting.

Briefly the story is of Paul Kriza, a banker, who is rolled while drunk in New York and relieved of $100,000 in securities with which he was entrusted. In the fight that follows one of the thieves with "Kriza's" Identification, is killed, and Kriza becomes a wanderer. His family, believing him dead, prospers, but he denies himself their company.

Supporting Akim Tamiroff in the role of the small town banker are Gladys George, William Henry, Muriel Angelus and many other noted players.

Helen Gilbert and Robert Young

"FLORIAN" DRAMATIC STORY

"Florian" is a dramatic story of the pomp, color and gaiety of Imperial Austria at its most opulent period from 1910 to 1914—then the collapse of the Empire, revolution and world reorganization (1914-1919), against which is told the love story of a boy and a girl, its episodes traced through the life of a magnificent Lipizzan horse. The Lipizzan horses, steeds of royalty down the centuries, are one of the most romantic traditions in the Old World in themselves. The picture shows Old Vienna, the Imperial Court, the great Spanish Riding School, against the cataclysm of war and its readjustment afterwards in one of the most important of screen productions.

GARFIELD HAS INTERESTING CAREER
John Garfield, who has overcome odds ever since he was a boy, is already on his way to the winners circle.
His whole life is the theatre

whether it be on stage or screen, for it was the theatre that gave him a new lease on living. When a boy, John was a ruffian and a roughneck having been brought up in one of the toughest neighborhoods in New York. After being expelled from one school after another, he was given a last chance in the school run by Angelo Patri, noted child psychologist. Patri knew if this boy could find something that would interest him, he would soon be over his wildness.

Patri told Garfield that he might make a good actor under the suggestion met with enthusiasm. From that time on, Garfield ate script dramas. He won a scholarship at the Heckscher Foundation, and from there he joined the Eve Le Gallienne Repertory Theatre as an apprentice.
